

Accelerate! 2014 Customer Appreciation Conference a big success!

June 10, 2014 – Blowing Rock, NC - This summer ECRS hosted over 115 Catapult customers from across the nation, from June 4-6, during the 2014 Customer Appreciation Conference held at Chetola Resort in Blowing Rock, NC. The 3-day event included over 20 hours of training and education, an evening reception, outdoor excursions and a customer appreciation dinner and concert. Customers had a lot to say about the event:

“The user conference is a great time to see the latest and greatest weapons in our on-going battle against chaos!” - Bay Naturals

“What I learned in these two days will save me several hours a week.” -Anonymous

“Informed and Empowered!!! A thoughtful blend of business and pleasure, allowing time to network with staff and attendees in a relaxed and productive environment.” -Berkshire Co-op Market

“I’ve never had so much fun learning! Packed with inside user tips, tricks and just the right dose of information on all of the latest updates and advances to an already amazing product!” -Sunrise Health Foods

ECRS looks forward to hosting more customer events, such as the 2014 SOHO user meeting scheduled for December. Please contact ECRS at training@ecrs.com for more information.
